

I'm astonished at
the bold disregard
for the public trust
that Sinclair
Broadcast Group has shown by announcing that it will 'ask'
it's stations to
broadcast, without
commercial support,
the anti-Kerry film
'Stolen Honor.'

Will they be showing
'Fahrenheit 9/11' the
next evening, in
prime-time, also
without commercial interruption? If so, I might not be
so incensed.

Such obvious
back-scratching
propaganda sounds
like something that happens in a third
world dictatorship,
not a supposedly
democratic society.

By the way--these
are still the PUBLIC
airwaves, correct?

Do the right thing
and tell these SGI
that they are not allowed to use the
public airwaves to promote the owners
political agenda.

Thank you for time
and attention.
